

Protection for you and your loved ones

Life insurance benefit summary

The importance of Life insurance

The right life insurance coverage can help protect your loved ones and help provide financial stability when they need it most. They can use the benefit to fund a child's education, pay off a mortgage or pay for everyday expenses.

Understanding your benefits

Commonly Used Terms

Guarantee Issue Amount	This is the amount of insurance available without having to provide evidence of insurability (also known as proof of good health).
Accelerated Death Benefit	Allows you access to a portion of your Life insurance while you are alive if you have a qualifying condition, such as a terminal illness, cognitive impairment, or the inability to perform two or more activities of daily living without assistance.
Basic Annual Earnings	Means your regular rate of pay from your employer in effect on the date immediately prior to the date the covered loss occurs. It includes any deductions made for pre-tax contributions to a qualified deferred compensation plans, section 125 plan, or flexible spending account. It does not include commissions, bonuses, tips, tokens, overtime pay or any other fringe benefits or extra compensation.
Portability	Allows you to take your group term Life insurance coverage with you if you leave your employer.
Conversion	Allows you convert your group term Life insurance coverage to an individual, whole life policy if your coverage is reduced or ends.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are my spouse and dependent children eligible for coverage?	Yes, your spouse, domestic partner, or civil union partner and your dependent children are eligible for coverage. Your dependent children are eligible for coverage up to the end of the month in which they turn 26 years old.

Does the coverage decrease as I get older?	Yes, the age reductions are shown in the "Benefit Plan & Features" section. The coverage on you and your spouse will reduce on the policy anniversary following your attainment of the ages shown. The percentages referenced are what the coverage reduces to and are all based on the original amount of coverage. For example, if you are covered for $50,000 and the coverage reduces to 65% at age 65, your coverage will reduce to $32,500 on the policy anniversary following your 65th birthday.
Is the accidental death benefit in addition to the life benefit?	Yes, if the insured dies as a result of a covered accident, the beneficiary will receive both the life and accidental death benefits.
How do I port or convert my coverage?	Contact your employer's HR department for the applicable portability and/or conversion forms. You can also call Equitable customer service at (866)274-9887 or access the forms at https://equitable.com/employee-benefits/customer-service/forms
How much does the portability coverage cost?	The rate for portability coverage is the same as the rate under your employer's plan.
How do I name a beneficiary?	Your employer will provide you with a form that will allow you to name primary and contingent beneficiaries.
Can I change my beneficiary?	Yes, you just need to complete a new beneficiary form and be sure to provide a copy to your employer.
What happens if I die and didn't name a beneficiary?	The insurance proceeds will be paid out as follows if there is no beneficiary designated or living: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To your spouse • To your surviving children in equal shares, if there is no surviving spouse • To your parents in equal shares, if there is no surviving spouse or children • To your brothers and sisters in equal shares, if there is no surviving spouse, children, or parents • To the executors or administrators of your estate, if there is no surviving spouse, children, brothers, sisters, or parents.
